

TASAM - Higher Security Academy in Sudan

Strategic Vision Development Program - Application Project

DRAFT VISION DOCUMENT

OBJECTIVE

Higher Security Academy which was established by the Sudanese National Security Service in 2006 assumes an active role in training the senior executives and, at the same time, gives support to academic studies in the security field.

The aim is that senior executives who receive training from Higher Security Academy in Sudan will come to Turkey and participate in the seminars that will be held on various issues, and therefore, improve their knowledge. Within the framework of 8 - day training program, Sudanese delegation will find the opportunity to learn more about Turkish culture and people.

SCOPE

The Turkey program of Sudanese delegation has been planned to take place on 15 - 22 May 2013. During the one-week program, information on some subjects in the fields of security, economy, foreign policy, strategy, media will be given to the guest delegation by experts, then, ideas will be exchanged in the question-answer sections.

TARGET

The aims of the strategic vision program, which is to be held by TASAM with the Higher Security Academy in Sudan, are:

- That the Higher Security Academy in Sudan, which trains the prominent decision makers of country, will be aware of the developments in our country and benefit from the accumulation of knowledge in Turkey.
- To provide better information for the Sudanese senior executives, who participate in the training program of the Higher Security Academy in Sudan and, therefore, play a role in facilitating public diplomacy activities,
- To contribute to the further development of strategic, economic, political, and social relations between Turkey and Sudan with this kind of projects.
